AGENDA	DISCUSSION/CONCLUSIONS	RECOMMENDATIONS/ACTION WHAT/WHEN
ACTION AGENDA	The Board of Directors meeting was called to order at 5:00 p.m. by Chairperson Zwickey.	Due to an electrical equipment failure, Mercy was without power at the start of the meeting.
1. Approve Agenda	No additions were made to the agenda. Chairperson welcomed all visitors and asked if anyone wished to address the board. Claire Stevens noted that she would like to speak to the Board of Directors. Claire Stevens addressed the board with questions relating to the possible Essentia affiliation, posting of Board meeting dates, the due diligence process, the Fitness Center and Humana coverage concerns. Board member Thiessen arrived at approximately 5:10 p.m. Dr. Thiessen noted that under the open meeting laws that it was not appropriate to conduct a meeting with the lighting at a minimum as people in attendance must be able to see the Board of Directors faces during the decision making process.	Motion: J. Collier, second: Tomczak to approve the agenda as presented. All ayes. Motion carried. Chairperson Zwickey noted that responses to Claire's questions would be addressed by Administration but not at tonight's meeting. Board Chairperson called for a short recess until power was returned at approximately 5:30 p.m.
2. Consent Agenda	Consent agenda was presented. Both the Facility Quality Committee and Medical Staff Quality & Peer Review minutes were distributed and recollected after Board review. Board member Goeb requested clarification on the Peer Review minutes. Typographical correction was noted to the October Board of Directors meeting under section 3.	Legal counsel will be contacted relating to MN Statutes and Facility/Medical Staff by-laws and the appropriateness of the CEO being asked to leave the Peer Review portion of the meeting. Motion: Grace-Probst, second: Tomczak to approve the consent agenda as amended. All ayes. Motion carried.
